CASSELS BEER BUS

This show stopper is sure to capture the imagination of your guests with her rustic beauty and old world charm. The 1936 AEC Mark 1 Regal Half Cab started life as the No16 Wellington Transport Bus. Built by the Wellington Tramways from native Kauri and Southland Beech she has stood the test of time and lives up to her name 'Regal.'

Surplus to requirements, she left the service of the Wellington Tramways and was sold to a truck wreckers in Horopito in the 1950's. The wreckers was famously known as Smash Palace (the location of the Bruno Laurence film). Here she was discovered by Dr Graham Shanks who purchased the bus and took her home to Christchurch where she was outfitted with seven bunk beds and reborn as the Shanks family's motor home.

The bus has remained in the Shanks family ever since and in 2003 was gifted to Dr Graham's Grandson Joe, Son-In-Law to Alasdair Cassels. The bus has once again metamorphosed and is now the Cassels Beer Bus.

Be restricted only by your imagination. This magnificent beauty will turn the ordinary into something extraordinary.

United in love

No ordinary experience

Our goal is to take the stress out of your wedding day, so that you can focus on enjoying what truly matters – your day, your way.

Your peace of mind is everything to us, from ideation to planning to the event itself. Your dedicated wedding planner will be on hand throughout the entire process, taking care of the small details so you can enjoy the journey. For us, this always starts with a meet up over coffee, so we can discuss your hopes for your wedding and get to know what makes your story so unique. We love being challenged with new ideas, so don't hold back!

Once we have a vision in mind, we work out a detailed, personalised planning document to keep everything on track. We know organising a wedding can be overwhelming, and we are happy to schedule as many or as few meetings as you like, be it morning, night or weekend.

When wedding week finally arrives, you'll meet with your planner one final time and can relax knowing everything is in the safe hands of The Tannery team. We'll be just as excited as you are, and this special week will be a great opportunity for the MC and family to meet with us, familiarise themselves with the venue and footprint of your wedding, so you can feel 100% confident on the day.

On your wedding day, you can leave the set up to us, so friends and family can make the most of the cocktail hour. Before your first appearance as newlyweds in the reception space, you are welcome to relax and unwind in Penny Black Victorian Tea Room. The space has capacity for up to 12 guests and we can arrange for nibbles and drinks. At the end of the night, our incredible events team will also tidy everything away, so your friends and family can enjoy the end of the evening without stress. Post-wedding collections can also take place anytime in the days following.
