CASSELS BEER BUS

Subject to seasonal availability.

This show stopper is sure to capture the imagination of your guests with her rustic beauty and old world charm. The 1936 AEC Mark 1 Regal Half Cab started life as the No16 Wellington Transport Bus. Built by the Wellington Tramways from native Kauri and Southland Beech she has stood the test of time and lives up to her name 'Regal.' Surplus to requirements, she left the service of the Wellington Tramways and was sold to a truck wreckers in Horopito in the 1950's. The wreckers was famously known as Smash Palace (the location of the Bruno Laurence film). Here she was discovered by Dr Graham Shanks who purchased the bus and took her home to Christchurch where she was outfitted with seven bunk beds and reborn as the Shanks family's motor home. The bus has remained in the Shanks family ever since and in 2003 was gifted to Dr Graham's Grandson Joe, Son-In-Law to Alasdair Cassels. The bus has once again metamorphosed and is now the Cassels Beer Bus. Be restricted only by your imagination. This magnificent beauty will turn the ordinary into something extraordinary.
